(vii) Steno-typist.—By direct recruitment on the basis of competitive examination or by transfer from among officials in the Departments of Administration who have the requisite qualifications prescribed for the post provided 23 per cent and 5 per cent of the vacancies shall be filled up from the candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes respectively subject to the minimum qualifications being satisfied by them.

Provided further that the vacancies reserved for outside candidates shall be intimated to the Heads of Departments or Heads of Offices as the case may be and they shall be asked to recommend names of suitable candidates working in their offices; otherwise vacancies shall be notified to the Employment Exchanges in Himachal Pradesh.

8. Selection by Departmental Promotion Committee.—The Departmental Promotion Committee in respect of selection of candidates by promotion and direct recruitment shall be as constituted by the Lieutenant Governor from time to time. Offers of appointments shall be made strictly in accordance with the select list prepared by the D.P.C.

9. Probation of the members of service.—(i) Members of the service who are appointed against permanent vacancies shall, on appointment to any post in the service, remain on probation for a period of two years in the case of direct recruitment and on trial for a period of one year in the case of promotion.

Explanation.—Approved officiating service shall be taken as a period spent on probation but no member who is officiating in any appointment shall on the completion of the probationary period prescribed, be confirmed until he is appointed against a permanent vacancy.

(ii) If the work or conduct of any member during his period of probation or trial, as the case may be, is in the opinion of the appointing authority not satisfactory, the appointing authority may dispense with his service or revert him to his former post if he has been appointed to that post otherwise than by direct recruitment.

(iii) On the completion of the period of probation or trial as the case may be, of any member, the appointing authority prescribed in Rule 4, may confirm such member in his appointment or if his work or conduct has, in the opinion of the appointing authority, not been satisfactory may dispense with his services, or revert him to his former post, if he has been appointed otherwise than by direct appointment, or may extend the period of probation or trial as the case may be, and thereafter, pass such orders on the expiry of probation or trial as the case may be, as it could have passed on the expiry of the first period of probation or trial as the case may be.

Provided always that the total period of probation or trial, as the case may be including extension, if any, shall not exceed three years.

10. Scale of pay etc., of the service.—The present grades of pay of each class of service are mentioned in Appendix "A" to these rules subject to their revision from time to time.

11. In respect of discipline, punishment and appeals, the members of the service shall be governed by the provisions of Central Civil Services (Classification Control and Appeal) Rules, 1957, and the Central Civil Services Conduct Rules, 1955, as amended from time to time.

12. Seniority of members of service.—(1) Subject to the provision of paragraph (2) below, persons appointed in a substantive or officiating capacity to a grade prior to the issue of these rules shall retain the relative seniority already assigned to them or such seniority as may hereafter be assigned to them under the existing orders applicable to their cases and shall en-block be senior to all others in that grade.

Explanation.—For the purpose of these rules—

(a) persons who are confirmed retrospectively with effect from a date earlier than the issue of these rules; and

(b) persons appointed on probation to a permanent post substantively vacant in a grade prior to the issue of these rules.

shall be considered to be permanent officers of the grade.

(2) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (3) below, permanent officers of each grade shall be ranked senior to persons who are officiating in that grade.

(3) Direct Recruits.—Notwithstanding the provisions of rule (2) above, the relative seniority of all direct recruits shall be determined by the order of merit in which they are selected for such appointments, on the recommendations of the selecting authority persons appointed as a result of an earlier selection being senior to those appointed as a result of a subsequent selection:

(1) Provided that where persons recruited initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their appointment, seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit.

(2) Provided further that a person who does not join within the specified period shall lose his seniority according to the select list and shall rank in the seniority list next to the person who joined earlier.

(3) Provided further that he shall not lose his seniority if the fact of his joining later was caused by circumstances beyond his control and for the reasons recorded in writing, the appointing authority is satisfied that this was so.

(4) Promotees.—(i) The relative seniority of persons promoted to the various grades shall be determined in the order of their selection for such promotions:

Provided that where persons promoted initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their promotion, seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit.

(ii) Where promotions to a grade are made from more than one grade, the eligible persons shall be arranged in separate lists in the order of their relative seniority in their respective grades. Thereafter the Departmental Promotion Committee shall select persons for promotion from each list upto the prescribed quota and arrange all the candidates selected from different lists in a consolidated order of merit which will determine the seniority of the person on promotion to higher grade.

5. Relative seniority of direct recruits and promotees.—The relative seniority of direct recruits and of promotees shall be determined according to the rotation of vacancies between direct recruits and promotees which shall be based on the quotas of vacancies reserved for direct recruitment and promotion respectively in the Recruitment Rules.

(6) Transferees.—The relative seniority of persons appointed by transfer from the subordinate offices of the Central Government or other departments of the State Governments shall be determined in accordance with the order of their selection for such transfer.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

Rule (4)(i).—Where promotions are made on the basis of selection by a D.P.C., the seniority of such promotees shall be in the order in which they are recommended for such promotion by the Committee. Where promotions are made on the basis of seniority subject to the rejection of the unfit, the seniority of persons considered fit for promotion at the same time shall be the same as the relative seniority in the lower grade from which they are promoted. Where, however, a person is considered as unfit for promotion and is superseded by a junior, such person shall not, if he is subsequently found suitable and promoted take seniority in the higher grade over the junior person who has superseded him.

Rule (5).—A roster should be maintained based on the reservation for direct recruitment and promotion in the Recruitment Rules. Appointments should be made in accordance with this roster and seniority determined accordingly.

Illustration.—Where 75 per cent of the vacancies are reserved for promotion and 25 per cent for direct recruitment, each direct recruit shall be ranked in seniority below 3 promotees. If for any reason, a direct recruit or a promotee ceases to hold the appointment in the grade, the seniority list shall not be re-arranged merely for the purpose of ensuring the proportion referred to above.

13. Leave and pensions etc.—In respect of leave, pension and other (cognate) matters not specifically mentioned in these Rules, the members of the service shall be governed by the Revised Leave Rules, 1933, given in Appendix 7-A, Volume II of the P&T Compilation of the Fundamental and Supplementary Rules and the pension rules promulgated by the Government of India Finance Ministry's Office Memo. No. F. 3(1) Est. (Spl.)/47, dated the 17th April, 1950 as amended from time to time, unless he has exercised his option otherwise.

14. Training and examination etc.—The members of service shall have to qualify examinations or to undergo training as may be prescribed by the Lieutenant Governor from time to time for any class of posts.

15. Other conditions of service.—In respect of conditions of service other than those covered by these Rules members of the service shall be governed by the Government of India, Ministry of Home Affairs Notification No. 27/59-Him. II, dated the 13th July, 1959.

16. Interpretation.—If any question arises relating to the interpretation of these Rules, it shall be referred to the Administration, whose decision thereon shall be final.

17. Repeal and savings.—Any Rules corresponding to these Rules in force immediately before the commencement of these Rules and applicable to the members of the service, as specified in Appendix "A", are hereby repealed.

Provided that any order made or action taken under the Rules, so repealed, shall be deemed to have been made or taken under the corresponding provisions of these Rules.
